Center for Victims Recognizes Local Men Committed to Ending Violence in Pittsburgh Communities through the MEN Challenge

WHEN: Friday, March 6, 2015, 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

WHERE: Drum Bar, Rivers Casino

WHAT: Center for Victims marks the one-year anniversary for the Men Ending violence (MEN) Challenge with a celebration recognizing the nearly 300 men who have taken the Challenge and signed the Pledge, committing to ending violence towards women and girls. Evening includes hors d'oeuvres, happy hour drink specials and giveaways.

Center for Victims will announce the MEN Challenge participants who will receive the Peace It Together Award on March 12.

RSVP by March 4: Fran Trimpey, 412-481-3240 x104 or email ftrimpey@centerforvictims.org

About MEN Challenge: Center for Victims launched the MEN Challenge in 2014 as a program to give men the tools and resources necessary to use their voices and their actions to be social change agents. Participants commit to learn more about how to be proactive bystanders and speak out about violence against women.

Center for Victims is the most comprehensive and inclusive provider of services, advocacy, and education for victims of all crime in Allegheny County and in Pennsylvania. More information is available at www.centerforvictims.org
