

For Immediate Release

Contact: Laurie MacDonald, CEO
Phone: 412-482-3240 x120; 412-600-8674
E-mail: Imacdonald@centerforvictims.org

Center for Victims stands with the Jewish Community this Passover as we mark 2024
National Crime Victims Rights Week.

Release Date: 4/22/2024

PITTSBURGH, PA - In recognition of 2024 National Crime Victims' Rights Week and the sacred time of Passover, Center for Victims (CV) reaffirms our unwavering support for the Jewish community.

In the aftermath of the tragic Tree of Life massacre on October 27, 2018, CV has been steadfast in its commitment to providing resources, support, and advocacy for our Jewish friends and neighbors, victims of this heinous crime. As we remember this solemn event, we also acknowledge the horrific attacks by Hamas on Israel and the rise of Antisemitism worldwide.

National Crime Victims' Rights Week is a time to reflect on the progress we've made in supporting victims and recommit ourselves to the work that lies ahead. At Center for Victims, we strive for peaceful coexistence through structured dialogue, mediation and negotiation. We stand in solidarity with the Jewish community during Passover, a time of liberation and hope, as we continue to work towards a future free from violence. As in all wars and acts of violence, there are no winners. Everyone loses.

CV's services, including counseling, crisis response, and legal advocacy, remain available to all victims of crime, regardless of when the crime occurred. We are here to help navigate the path to healing and justice for all.

For more information about the Center for Victims and the services we provide, please visit our website www.centerforvictims.org or call our free and confidential 24 Hour Hotline at 1-866-644-2882.

About Center for Victims

Center for Victims is a 501c(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to helping victims of all types of crime. We provide comprehensive services to victims and their families, advocate for their rights, and promote public policy that addresses the impact of crime.

##